

Under 9 - Two Streams of Development FAQ

What is the purpose for having two streams of development in the Under 9 Division?

The goal of ability based teams is to allow all players to play at their skill and confidence level. We want all players to be challenged, to build their skills and to enjoy their playing experiences. We wish to provide coaches with technical support to ensure they are meeting the needs of their players. We believe that providing children with the opportunity to play with and against those of similar ability will enhance both player and coach development.

How are decisions made if players are placed on a Team playing in the Tri-Cities Development League or Tri-Cities House League?

Teams are formed through evaluations of players during their Under 8 season from their Head Coaches and PMSC's technical director.

Will teams be balanced in the Development Division and House Division of Under 9?

Teams will be formed with all efforts to balance all teams in the House and the Development Divisions. This will be done in collaboration with the Under 9 Coordinators and PMSC Technical director.

How do I register for the Tri-Cities U9 House League or the U9 Development League?

You cannot register for either League. You register for the Under 9 age group and then you will be placed on teams through our team formation process.

Registration begins right after our identification camps and registration will be online at www.portmoodysoccer.com

How Many Teams will there be in the House and Development Divisions?

In each club based on registration numbers we are looking on average to have 30% of the players placed in the Development Division and 70% in the House Division. We will assess each season if additional Development teams will be added.

Does My Son/Daughter Get to Play with their friends?

At PMSC we do not have a place on our registration form for requests. Our first priority is to make sure all teams are balanced in teams of ability. Our age group coordinators try to place players together due to their neighbourhoods in which they live. In the Development side there will be less emphasis on grouping with neighbourhoods.

Will my child have the same Parent coach as Under 8?

Some may and some may not. Parent coaches change from year to year as some parents may not return to coaching and there may be new coaches that put their names forward for coaching. We will also have to adjust the teams within the House league and the Development league to ensure that teams are balanced. If an additional team is added in the Development Division there will be adjustments on all teams to accommodate this.

If my child was in the Development League last season, could he/she be moved to the House League this Year?

Yes, that could be a possibility, based on the assessment of players from the 2012-13 season. If players will not be placed on an Under 9 Development team that were on an Under 8

Development team, the families will be contacted by the PMSC coaches prior to their placement.

If my child is placed in the House league, do they have the opportunity to move to the Development league?

Yes, there will be continued evaluation throughout the season.

If my child is placed in the Development stream, will they be moved into the House Stream?

All players will be assessed throughout the Under 9 season and depending on their skill development, may or may not be placed on a Development team in the Under 10, 2014-15 season.
